Bryan's Bits

Dear Family,

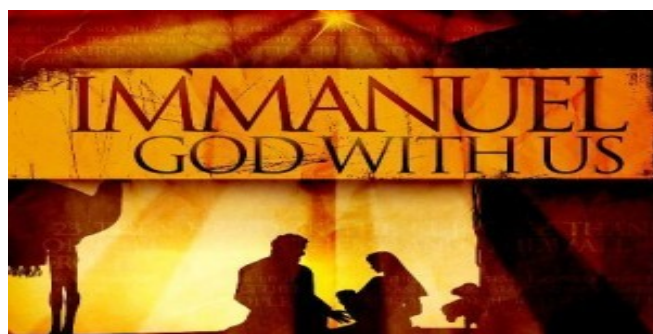

I am so blessed to be going into another Advent and Christmas season with you, my church family! I look back on this year and see new families whom we have embraced and who have embraced us as well. It does my heart good to see so many smiles, hugs, prayers and acts of kindness that are generated among our friends and family. We are truly a blessed people. This month is mostly a time of running to this event and that event. Making plans for parties and presents, and welcoming family from hither and yon. But I want to take just a moment and reflect on what we have in this Advent and Christmas season: We have the Immanuel who comes to dwell among us, and in us and even more importantly through us! We are His light to this world! What a blessing and what a responsibility! Take time this season of expectation to wait, hope, love and see God moving among us. What a blessed season of change, what a blessed season of opportunity. I challenge you to take in this season through your worship involvement as well. I have seen you glow as you enter the church sanctuary and radiate His love when you leave. It is truly a time when we are focused and energized to do God's work. Thank you for your love and witness of the God among us and see you soon in this season of joyous love!

In His Loving Grip,
Bryan

The Benefits of Your Teenager Joining a Church Youth Group

Not only does having your teenager join a church youth group offer the teen many wonderful opportunities and experiences, it also provides the parent a multitude of benefits.

It Helps To Strengthen The Faith Of The Teenager. Though the atmosphere of most church youth groups is lighthearted and focuses on fun, there is a certain amount of time spent at each meeting discussing various Bible lessons and fundamentals of faith. This serves to strengthen the teenager's faith, which in turn brings the entire family closer.

It Offers Your Teen An Opportunity For Good, Clean Fun. At a time when peer pressure is so very strong and temptations to engage potentially harmful behavior for recreation, a church youth group can be an oasis for teenagers. This can give parents much needed peace of mind during this critical age.

It's a Great Environment For Teenagers To Socialize. Members are encouraged to make new friends and enjoy themselves with other kids they have known for ages in a safe and positive place where no drugs, alcohol or inappropriate behavior is condoned.

It Encourages Positive Involvement With The Community. Church youth groups often organize and take part in projects that better the community and its residents. Not only will your teenager come away from these activities with a sense of pride and achievement, parents cannot help but be inspired to take more of an active role in the community.

The Leaders Can Help To Reinforce Important Values To Your Teenager. Teenagers tend to tune out their parents, but listen far more intently when another adult they admire and respect offer words of wisdom and advice.

Public Assistance to Deliver

On the second Sunday of each month, we are charged with making bag lunches for the "guests" who stay at the First Presbyterian Church in Deerfield - a Lake County PADS site. The lunches are provided to the guests on Monday mornings as they go out to job search. We will fill the lunch bags here at CCC directly after worship service on the appointed Sunday. Members and friends of our church congregation sign up to contribute the specific items needed to fill the bags items. If you are interested in donating, you may sign up on the sheet posted on the bulletin board in Friendship Hall &/or contact the church office.

The "W" in Christmas

My son, Nicholas, was in kindergarten that year. It was an exciting season for a 6-year-old. For weeks, he'd been memorizing songs for his school's "Winter Pageant." Because the public school system had long stopped referring to the holiday as "Christmas," I didn't expect anything other than fun, commercial entertainment - songs of reindeer, Santa Claus, snowflakes and good cheer. So, when my son's class rose to sing, "Christmas Love," I was slightly taken aback by its bold title. Nicholas was aglow, as were all of his classmates, adorned in fuzzy mittens, red sweaters, and bright snow-caps upon their heads. Those in the front row-center stage held up large letters, one by one, to spell out the title of the song. As the class would sing "C is for Christmas," a child would hold up the letter C. Then, "H is for Happy," and on and on, until each child holding up his portion had presented the complete message, "Christmas Love."

The performance was going smoothly, until suddenly, we noticed her; a small, quiet, girl in the front row holding the letter "M" upside down -- totally unaware her letter "M" appeared as a "W." The audience of 1st through 6th graders snickered at this little one's mistake. But she had no idea they were laughing at her, so she stood tall, proudly holding her "W."

Although many teachers tried to shush the children, the laughter continued until the last letter was raised, and we all saw it together. A hush came over the audience and eyes began to widen. In that instant, we understood the reason we were there, why we celebrated the holiday in the first place, why even in the chaos, there was a purpose for our festivities. For when the last letter was held high, the message read loud and clear:

C H R I S T W A S L O V E

And, I believe, He still is.

May each of you have a Merry Christmas as you reflect on His Amazing Love For us... Have a blessed day!

Happy Birthday Jesus !!!!!!!

Watch for Some Exciting Correspondence from the Congregational Care Committee coming soon!

. . . Humbug

So many words are used to describe the Christmas season, mostly claiming that this is such a perfect time. Decorations are gorgeous, food is fabulous and every family is full of joy and good cheer. Really? Predicting such perfection can easily lead to serious disappointment. Clearly, reality usually involves a few "hic-ups". The tree tips, the turkey is way too dry and some family member becomes "unhappy".

If you find yourself struggling with the fact that the "best Christmas EVER" didn't work out and you need to figure out how to "get over it" this may be a good time to visit with a Stephen Minister. Bryan will make the arrangements, just give him a call.
